Object : Amendment of the ToRs – Assessment Criteria

The following amendment has been made to the Terms of Reference:

It is no more required from the evaluator to speak and write French fluently. Applicants can thus refer to the following assessment criteria:

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

The consultant is expected to have the following qualifications and skills:

- Master's degree in development or studies in a similar field.
- Experience in monitoring and evaluation, particularly in terms of education and/or sport and development projects.
- Knowledge and/or experience in the design and implementation of similar M&E activities in unstable contexts is required.
- A good knowledge of the context of the target countries is appreciated.
- Solid analytical skills and the ability to synthesize and present results clearly.
- An excellent level of written and spoken English is essential (Albanian or other languages of the target countries would be appreciated)
- Good knowledge of the educational context in the target countries is an advantage.

The consultant shall identify a focal point for communications and reporting purposes, with appropriate knowledge and experience, for the duration of the evaluation. At the inception session, the focal point should submit a comprehensive contact list including all persons involved in the evaluation.

All other mentions of the Terms of Reference remain unchanged.
